

DOLUNAY BULUT

Dolunay Bulut is a Ph.D. candidate in Politics at the New School for Social Research. Her research draws from critical and democratic theory with a focus on the themes of legitimacy and authoritarianism, empirically drawing upon the post-1989 liberal hegemon empirically informed theoretical inquiry, it mainly concentrates on roles and peripheries of the hegemonic liberal Euro-Atlantic core.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lecturer | NYU Liberal Studies for Arts and Science

Global Works and Society: Modernity | 2022 - 2023

Lecturer | Eugene Lang College of Liberal Arts, New School

Techno-social Imaginaries and Conceptual Change | Spring 2021, Spring 2022

Lecturer | City College of New York, CUNY

Introduction to American Politics and Government | 2016 – 17, Fall 2019

Lecturer | Fashion Institute of Technology

Comparative Political Systems | 2017 – 18

Teaching Assistant | Parsons School of Design

Design, Self, and Society | 2019 – 2023, Instructor: Matthew Robb

Teaching Assistant

Teaching Assistant

PROJECTS & RESEARCH

Endangered Scholars Worldwide | 2016 -

Monitoring and reporting the developments concerning academic freedom violations in the Middle East and Central and Eastern Europe

Available at: <https://www.endangeredscholarsworldwide.net/>

Authoring quarterly reports for Social Research Journal on latest developments concerning academic freedom and rights violations.

Available at: <https://muse.jhu.edu/journal/644>

Collecting and sorting data to list the opportunities and resources available to scholars and students at risk, and to create a sourcebook for academic freedom solidarity networks

See: <https://newuniversityinexileconsortium.org/sourcebook/>

Otto Kirchheimer and critical institutionalism | 2018 – 2019

Supervisor: Hubertus Buchstein, University of Greifswald, NSSR Politics

Self-destructive violence and weaponization of the body in Turkey | 2017 – 2018

Supervisor: Banu Bargu, NSSR Politics

Mapping the DNA of Community Building | 2016

Parsons-NYC Mayor's Office joint project on gentrification and urban transformation

Supervisor: Anasa Scott, Parsons School of Design

UN-CEDAW and Turkish Armed Forces (TAF) joint project on domestic violence and sexism in Turkey | 2011 -2013

Supervisor: Feride Acar, UN CEDAW & Middle East Technical University

Non-Muslim ethnic minorities in the late 19th century Ottoman Empire, history

“Janus-faced Authoritarianism: A Layered Narrative”